Congratulations to one who deserves it

Good Luck and God Bless You

Happy Reading

Carol (AWARD)

To Carol

Gee how can a smart beautiful girl like you go out with my dumb, ugly brother.

Loads O Luck

Dick Johnson

To Carol

I really felt bad getting a "B" in history and looking while you worked and worked and could not pull an "A"

Good Luck at Lamar College

Rich Hanfield

Carol,

I'm sure you will make a real success of your life. I'm glad to know you and I got to the Seminar also through you.

Good Luck,

Joanne Gray

Dear Carol:

May you and like excitement and like that generation and like angry young men and like rest of like would all be very, very happy now and we like future. I could say much a lot, live there can't time or room; really to do so. So I'll simply say "I and you." for being in Seminar and for simply being Dallas smiles.

A toujours,

Carol Finkelstein

To a wonderful but quite unknown Good Luck girl in Seminar

- RESERVED -

To dear, dear, Miss Emery,

I take it that this page is reserved for me. (touché)

To say the least, it has been a sincere pleasure knowing you and working with you, especially these last two years. Nothing could have been more enjoyable.

Words are inadequate to say what I see in you - a perfectly charming, stimulating, refreshing, and deserving young lady - I know you'll do well in the years to come.

I sincerely hope that the miles and the years will prove fruitless, and that our friendship will grow stronger as the years go by.

Congratulations on your scholarships - you certainly don't have to have green eyes for anybody or anything.

In the back of my mind and my heart, I hope some of your "extraneous" or shall I say "existentialist" ideas may be changed a bit - I think you'll be able to have greater peace, satisfaction, and joy in another philosophy. Of course, it's only my humble opinion and you may do with it as you wish.

Thanks for being such a wonderful friend - and such a tremendous person. In my own way, I pray that God may bless you.

Yours, as always,

Wendy Roth

Carol;

OK another crazy yr. has passed only we're not comming back next yr. Best wishes to you Carol. It's been such fun. May God Bless You.

Carol-

It has been a real pleasure to meet you and be in some of your classes. I hope I shall see you again in the future and until then my best wishes go with you.

as ever,
Jeoanne Peters

Carol-

I'm glad you survived Ms. H.E. Smith's class. And may you sit on the tack of success and sit quickly in what ever you do. Best wishes and Good luck from a gal who sat in back of you in U.S. History 2-6 hour-.

always-

Carol: It has been wonderful having you in Germany & you are a very bright girl and your smile is just as bright.

Roberta

Carol:
Well the first three years of your marriage are really behind you. I'm sure they've been happy ones & I hope your next three years are as happy. I'm sure they will be.

Carol. It has been nice knowing you and having you as a friend. Germany is a real swell place & you're a swell girl. God Bless You

Foreword

The year of 1958-1959 may well be called the year of the big change at Bay View. The story of that change, which includes the addition of new classrooms, the modernization of the old, the complete refurbishing of the stage, and an ever expanding program of courses of study, is presented here, in this the latest volume of our yearbook — the 1959 Oracle Annual.

Dedication

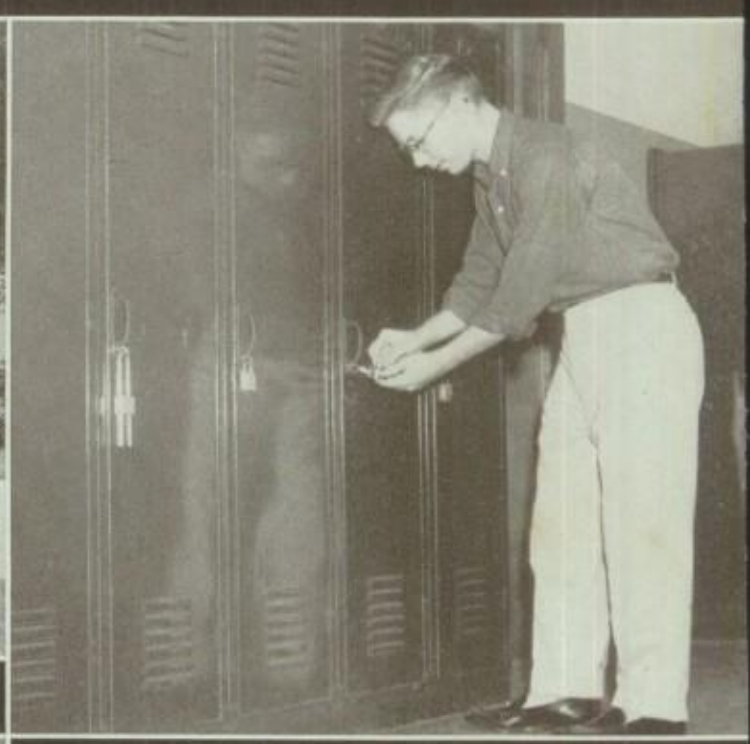
To the greater opportunities for education of the students in the ever enlarging Bay View High School area of tomorrow, we dedicate the 1959 Oracle Annual.

September! The school is filled with life . . .

The Star Spangled Banner opens school in September and every Monday morning.

Miss Krause accompanies a group of freshmen as they troop up to their new homeroom, 321.

An "A" gym class runs the park path on a brisk autumn day to harden muscles.



Ed Jazdzewski finds padlocks are a necessary evil until lockers are re-numbered.

Freshman girls meet the Girls' Club at their first party in the cafeteria.

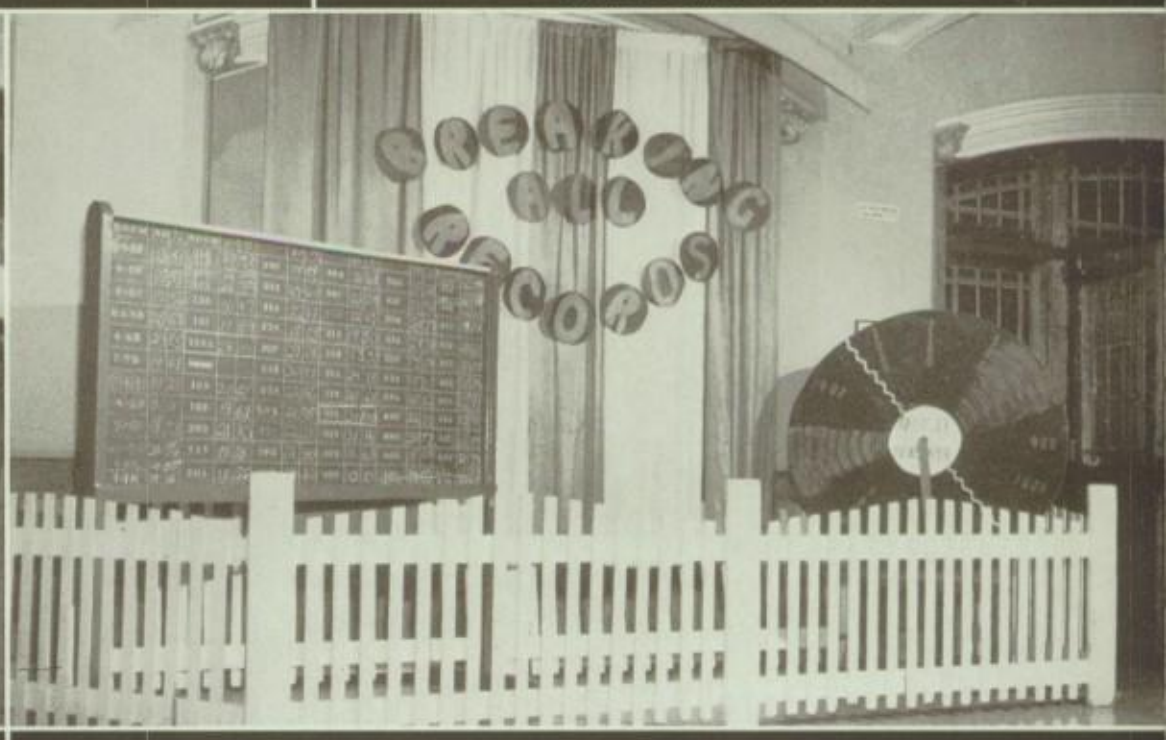
and school life fills the school.

A record of over 1000 books is subscribed on the first day of the 1959 annual campaign.

The race is on — to get to the homeroom before 8:30.

The new double line speeds up service in the cafeteria.



Students back a colorful campaign to push Oracle newspaper sales.

The new freight elevator eases movement of equipment from floor to floor.

The bookstore stays open long after school during the opening week of the semester.

Color, confetti, and strong school spirit . . .

"A locomotive for the team!" thunders out at a football rally.

A skit at a rally shows the Juneau locker room.

The bench concentrates upon a tense moment that may bring a touchdown.

Reddy Redcat and Pep Club plan Friday afternoon rallies.

The cheer leaders: Dennis Szajnowski, Ted Hanleck, Jerry Baker, Dominic Rappa, Wayne Carter, and Mike Libecki.

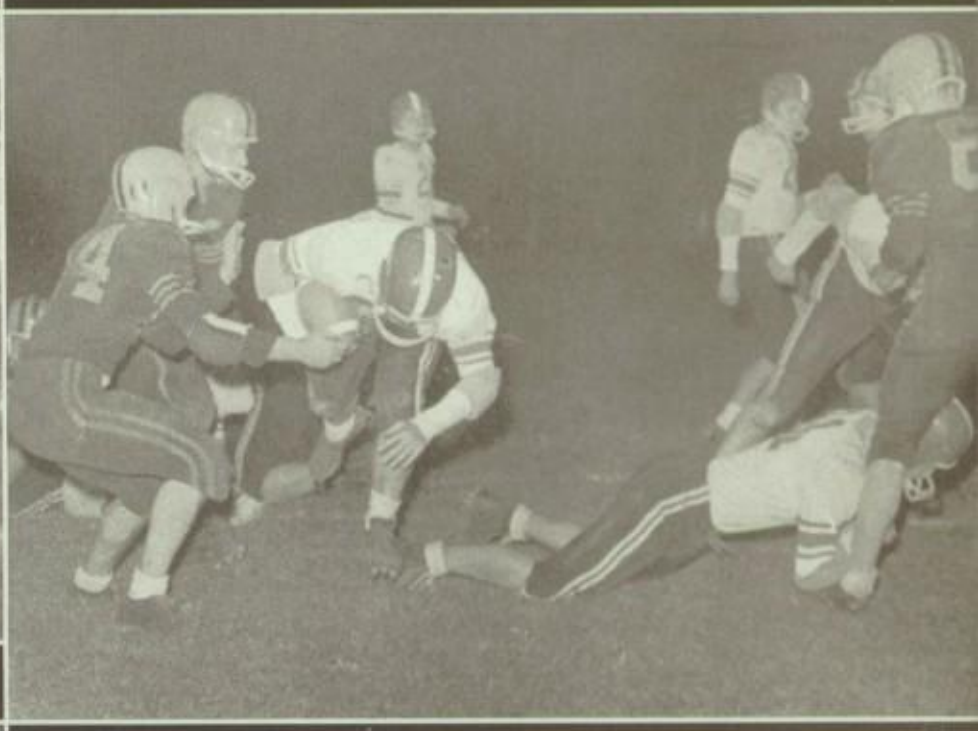
seem to make the boys fight toward hard-earned victory.

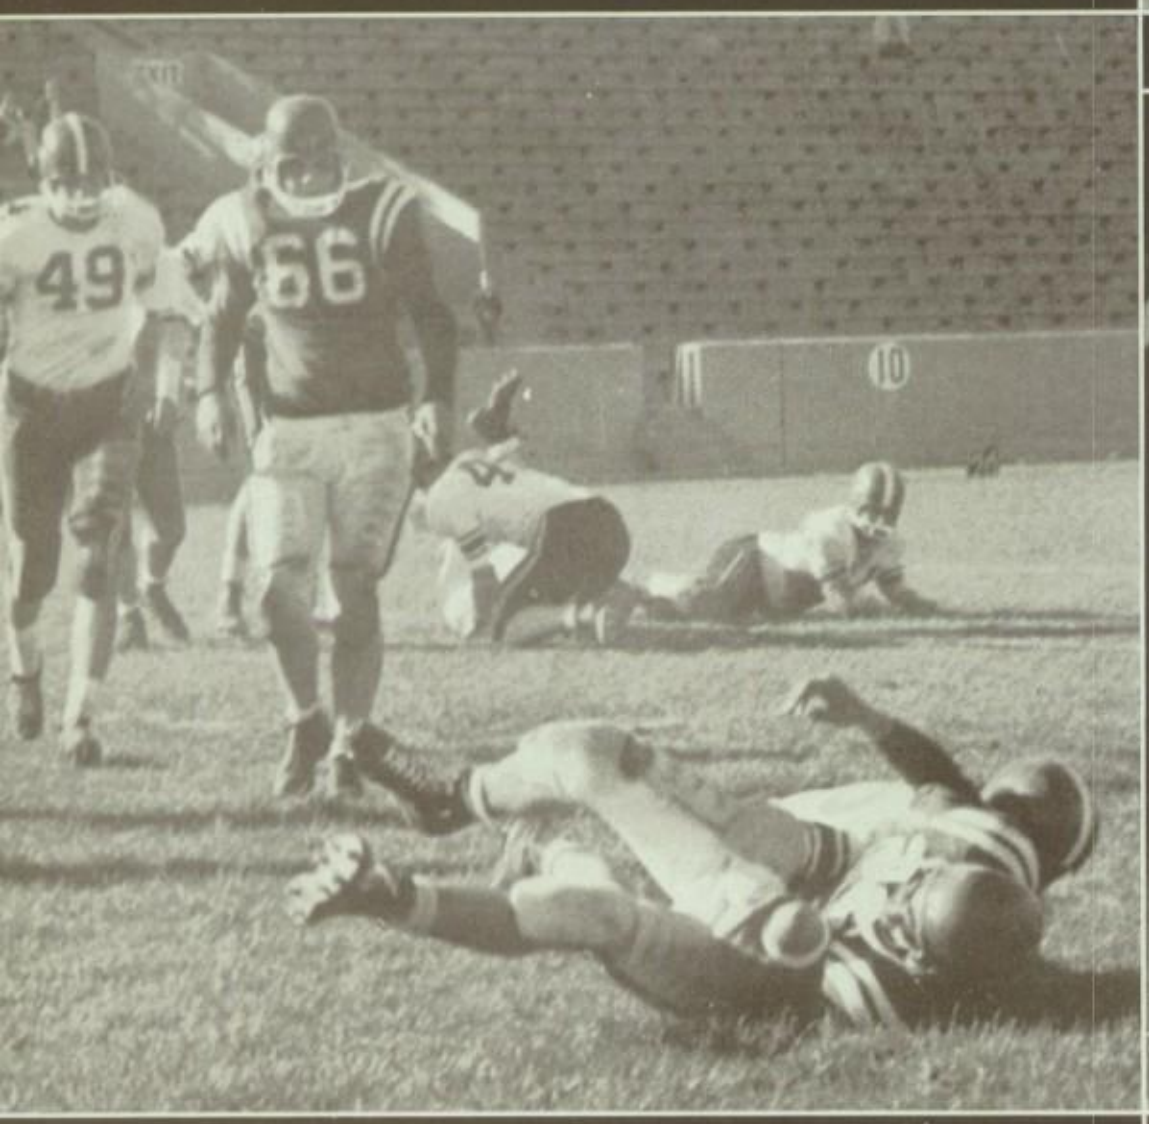
Good blocking enables Wuethrich to get in the clear.

Leaman gets his man in the Pulaski game.

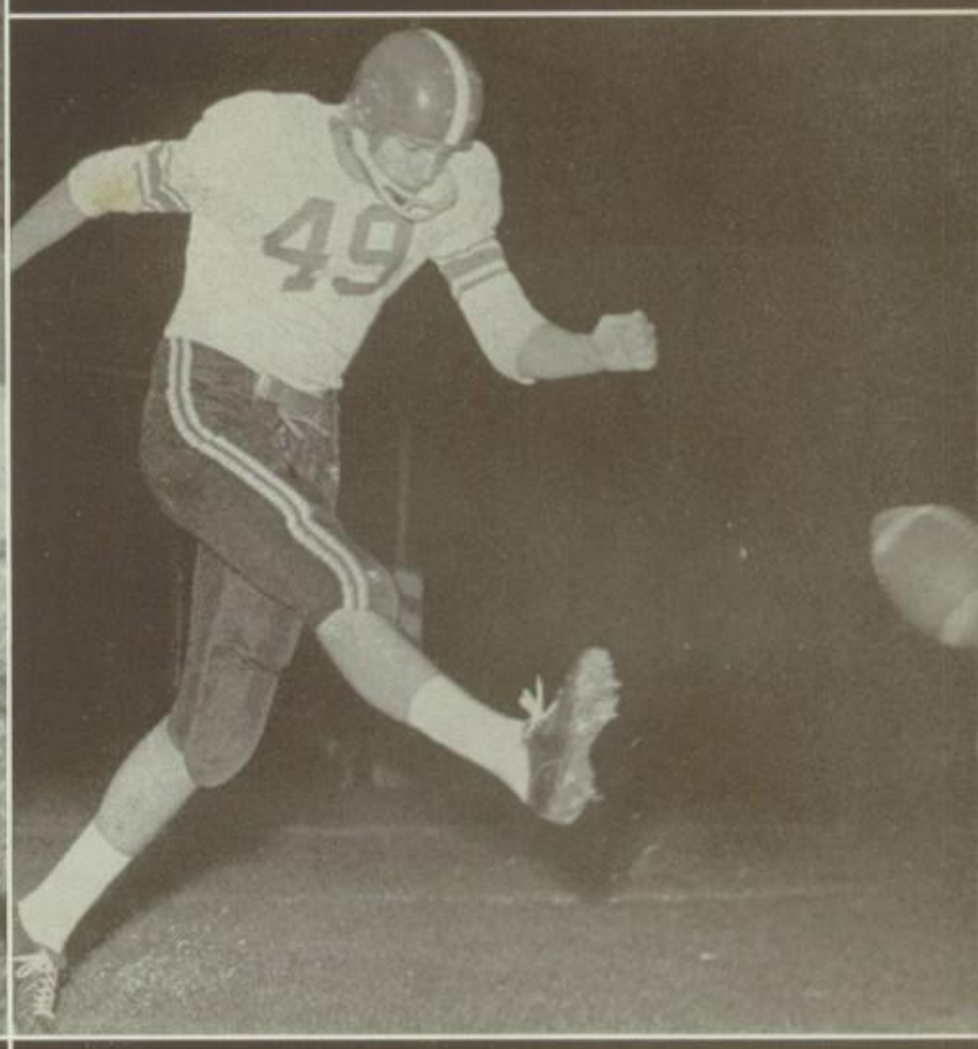
The frosh-soph team eats up yardage to bring in a victory over Pulaski.



Hawkins pushes through the last yards for a Bay touchdown.



The Bay View-Custer game becomes "a tussle in the afternoon."



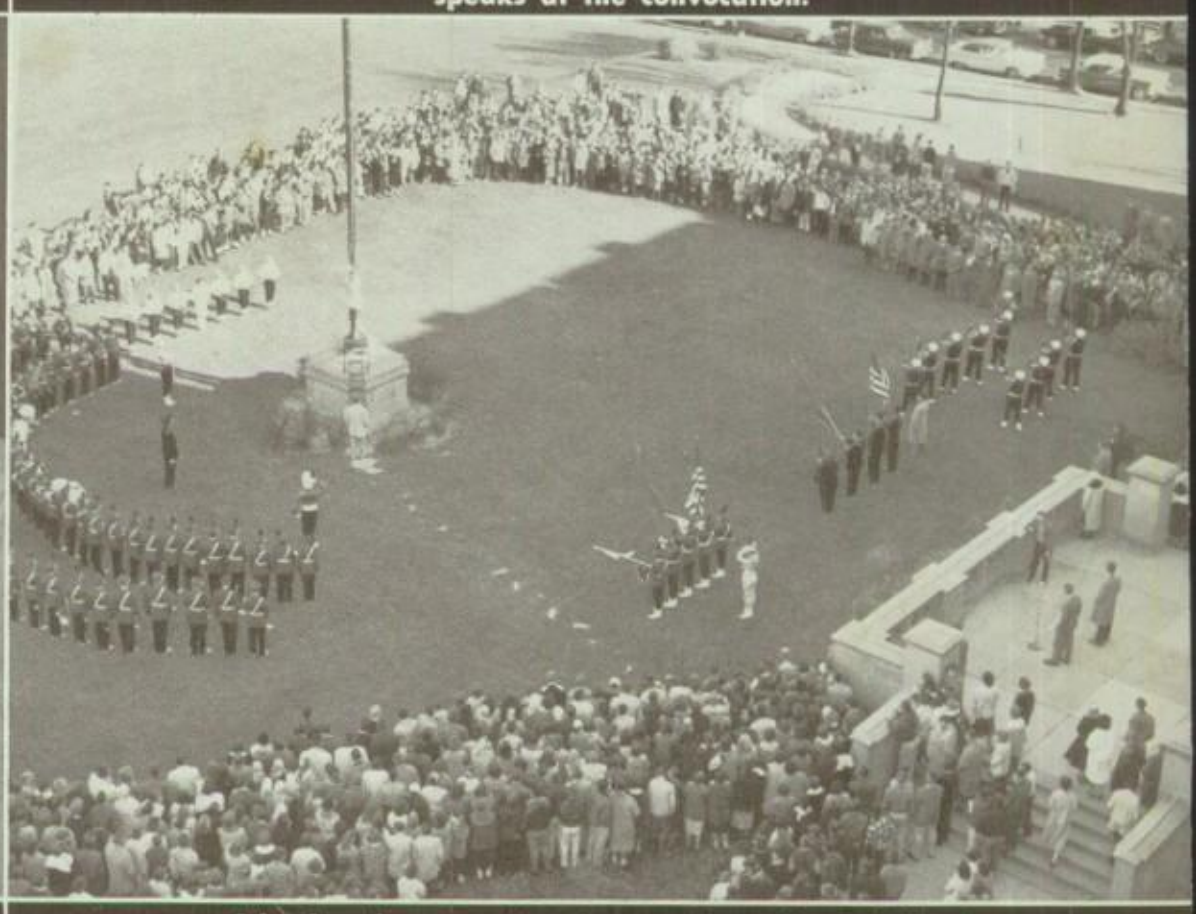
Dennis Waldoch opens the game against Pulaski.

School and community pause in remembrance of veterans of all wars

"Taps" is echoed by the trumpeter, Garth Robbins.

Walter R. Rose, past Department Commander, American Legion, speaks at the convocation.

Boys' Club advisor, Mr. Nader, discusses the Veteran's Day program with Louis Seefeld, president.



School and community observe the raising of the flag at eleven o'clock.

The Bay View twirlers and color guard assist the outdoor portion of the program.

The Bay View American Legion Post 180 fires a salute in honor of the war dead.

The stage fire does not stop production of a top ranking class play.

Cast aspirants look on with interest as tryout notices are posted.

The art crew produces a jungle set, in spite of cramped quarters.

In a few hot, smoky hours the stage becomes a total loss.

"All the world's a stage" — including the cafeteria.

Lines are read over and over and over before a leading lady can be chosen.

"Pearls — My little cabbage." Michael Libecki, Barbara Biedrzycki.

A Bay View Christmas is warm and mellow . . . and fun.

A charred curtain is made into a gigantic Merry Christmas tree.

The Glee Club carolers pause at the Christmas tree.

Mike Libecki, Juan Kujawa, and Carol Lijewski fold the Christmas Oracle before distribution.

Lani Smith and Jeff Treichel, from SGA, help decorate the huge Christmas tree.

Finishing touches are added to the Christmas mural in 314.

These girls enjoy making party decorations in a Home Ec class.

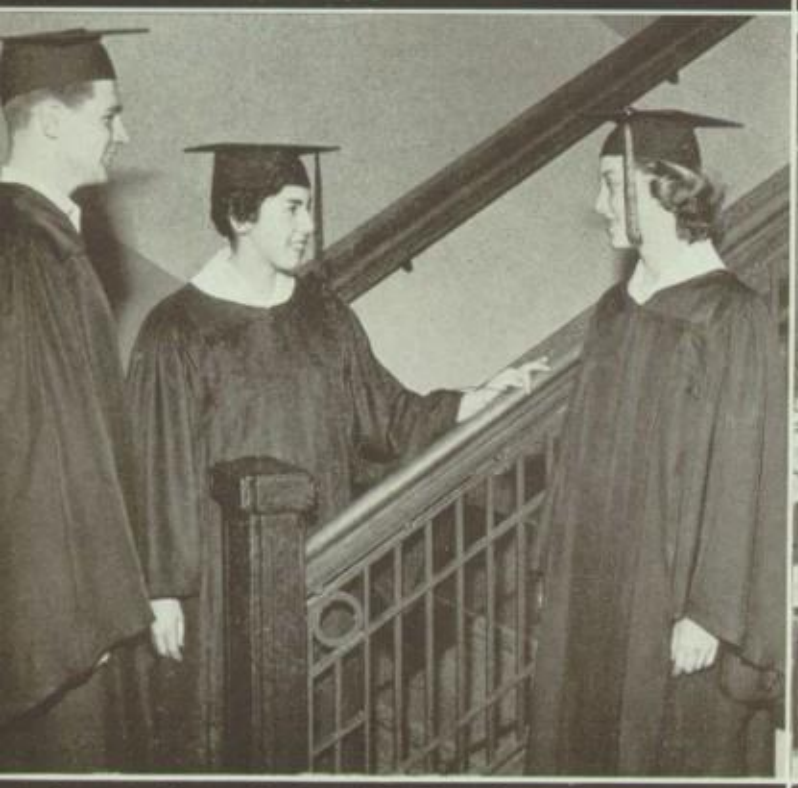
Midyear graduation . . . and memories.

Daily activities are looked upon with nostalgia.

Programs for the January grads' dinner-dance are made in the Graphic Arts class.

Heel and tie day distinguishes these as candidates for graduation.

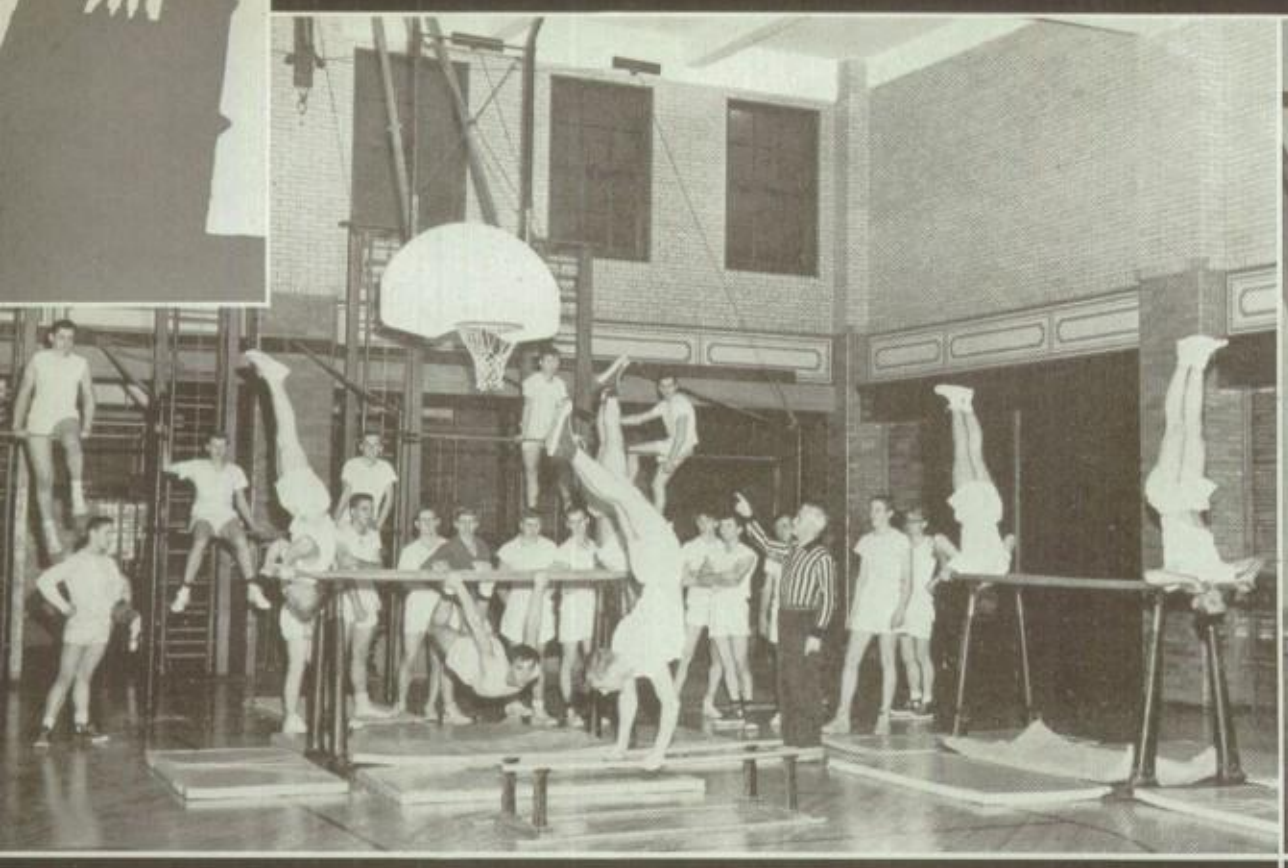
Ninety per cent plus, overall average — the January Honor Society.



Robert Krull, Sandy O'Dell, and Barbara Brezovar talk about graduation.

Memories are preserved in pictures as a 12A class meets for the last time.

Activities are as varied as student interests.



Body control and discipline are learned here.

Mad musicians blast the hall to "sell" the Music Festival.

Richard Comp and Kenneth Thomas explain to this Home-Ec group how a modernistic chest is made.

Ingenuity is shown in projects made in a 9B Ancient History Class.

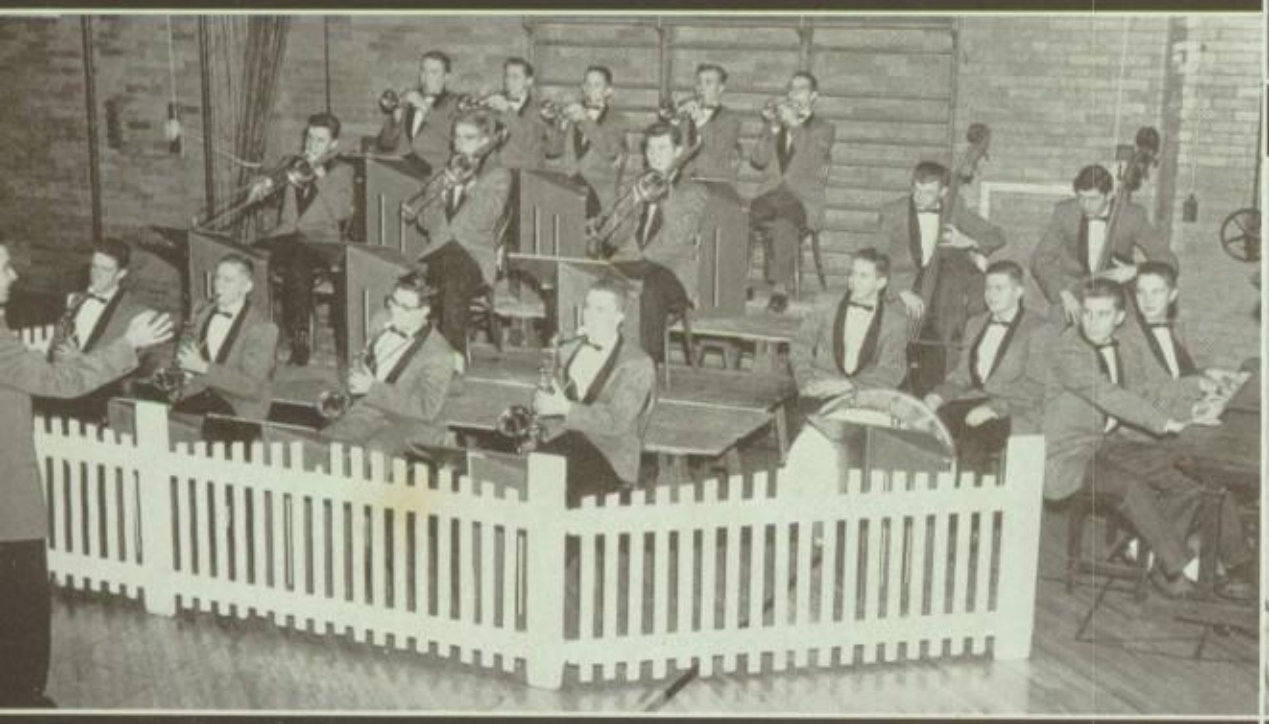
The annual Home-Ec tea provides time for teachers to relax.

These Viewites find interest in the new reading center.

Interests vary with the individual.

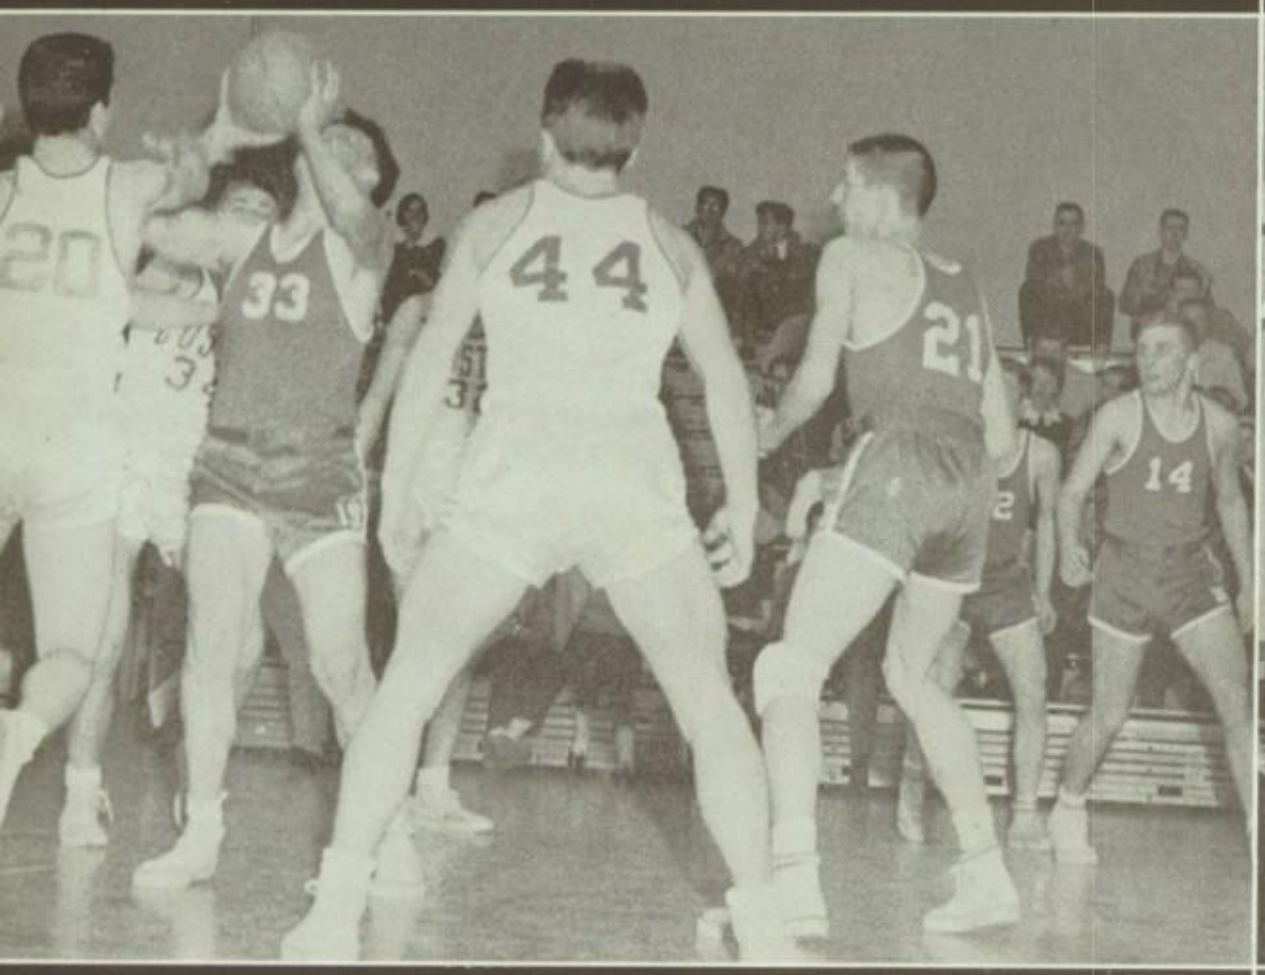
Attendance is checked more easily in the new office in 225.

Tough weather kept these people from their homeroom pictures.



The dance band, directed by Stan Kraczek, plays mood music for a school dance.

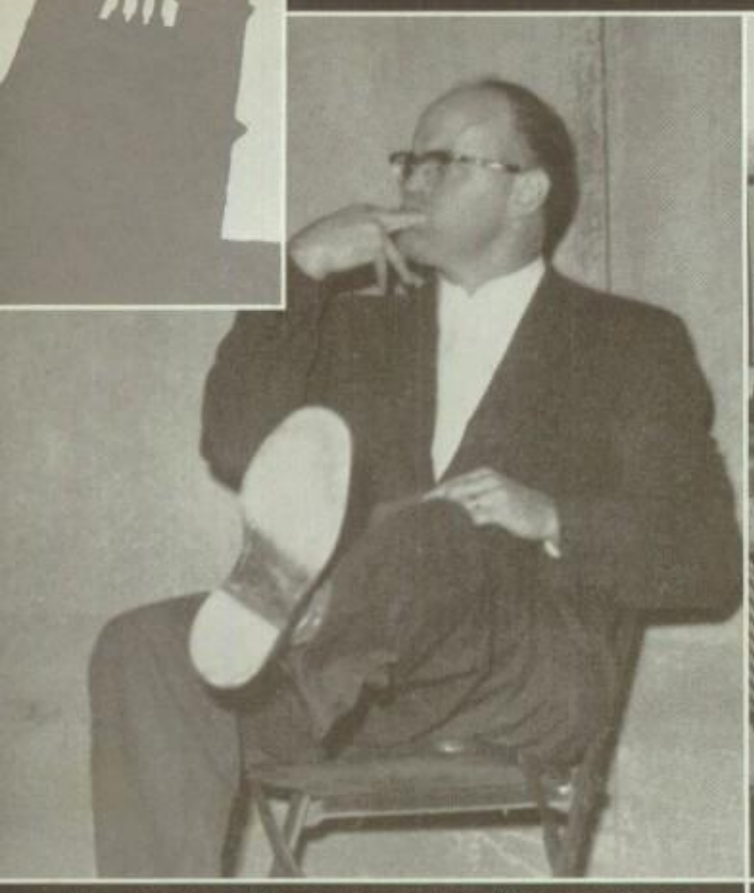
John Giove, Kathleen Jenny, and John Ahrens head the building ushers this year.



Warras takes a shot at the Custer basket.

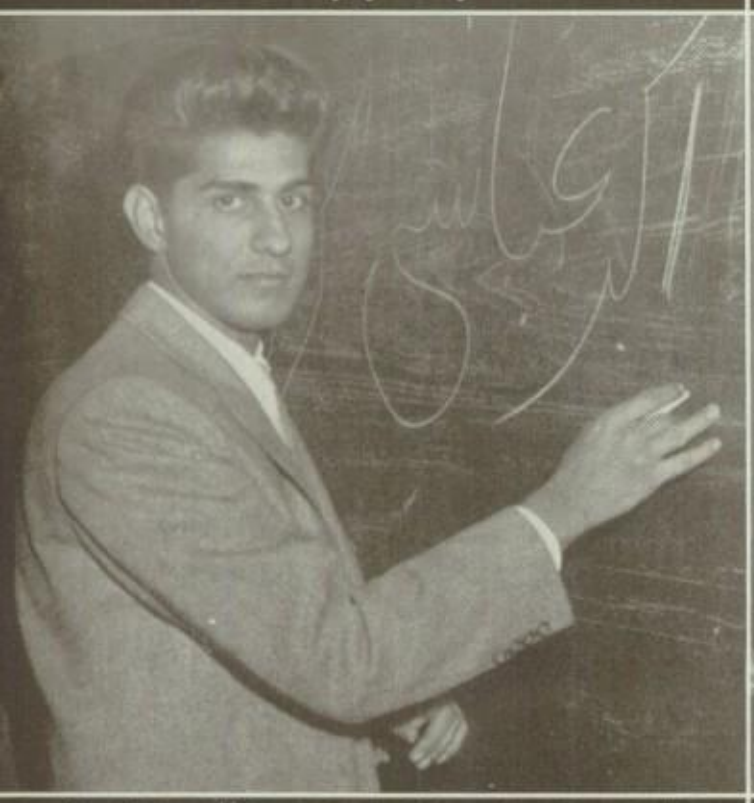
Fluorescent lighting and new draperies give the office a new look.

We take "time out" for new ideas.



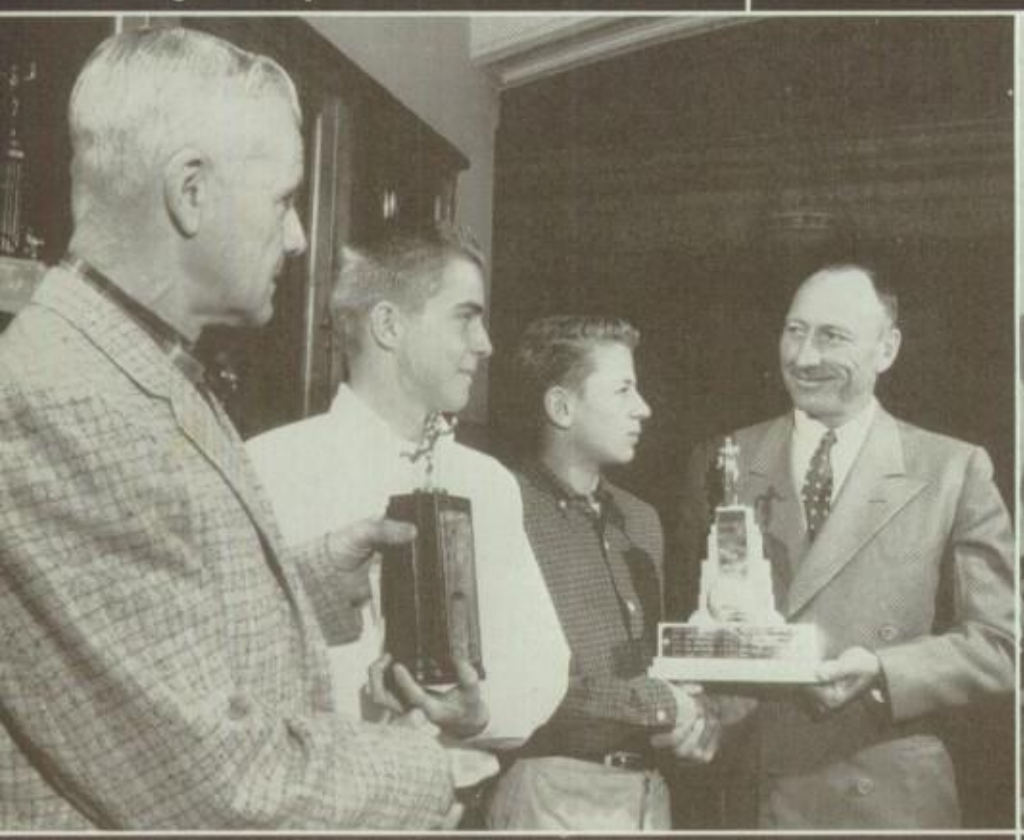
Mr. Don Loni fascinates a Bay View audience with his "popularity" talk.

Mr. Borzykowski, teacher in training from U.W.M., meets an English 7 class.



Mr. Akbar Abbasi, student from Pakistan, talks to foreign correspondents from Round Table.

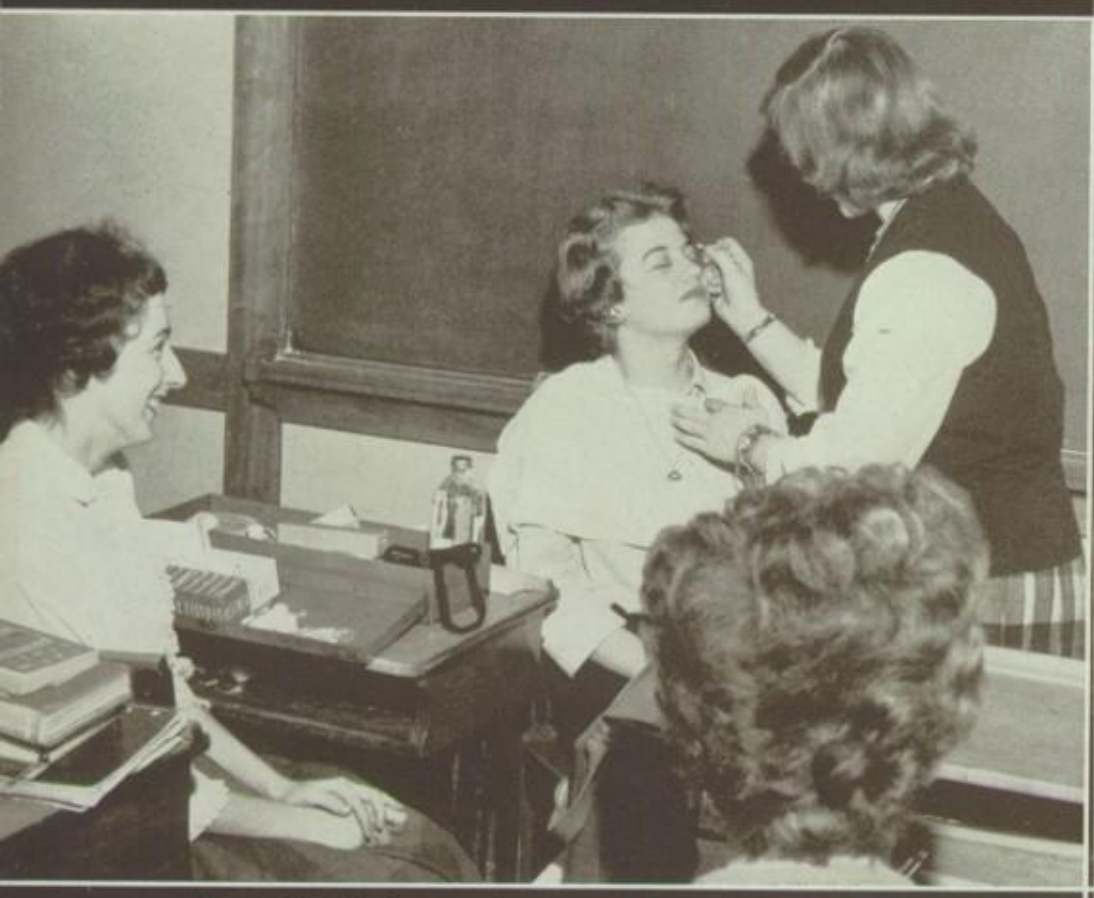
The pep committee plans a sports announcement.



Mr. Glenn Cunningham, champion miler, congratulates marathon winners Bob Mehan and Tom Schroeder.

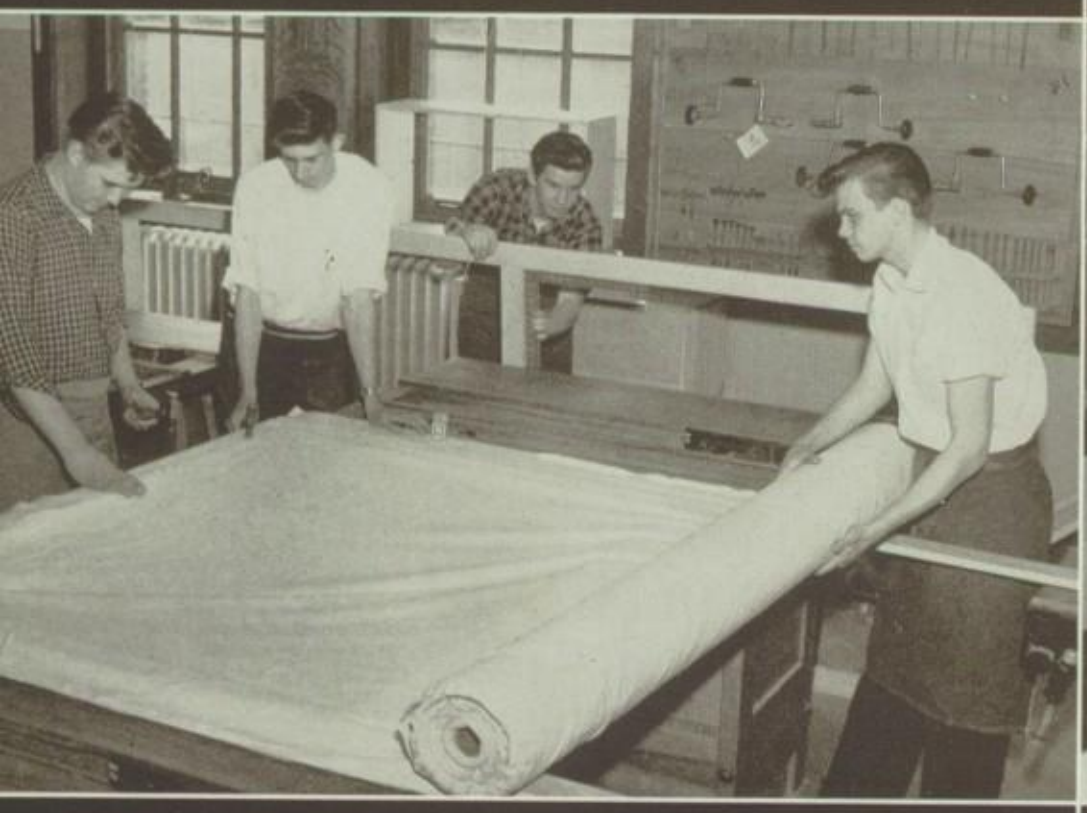
Our convocation speaker, Mr. Arbuckle, recounts fascinating American folk stories.

Operetta and graduation climax the year at Bay View.



Round Table learns the secrets of make-up.

All the seniors dress up for the big day.



Entirely new sets of scenery must be constructed for Oklahoma.

Busy needles work to lend color to the big show.

Flat canvas becomes a 3-d building through the magic of paint.

Heel and tie day — a preview of graduation.

Carol;
Seniors
will always be one of our fondest memories. I am sure we will treasure it always. I am glad to have shared it with you.

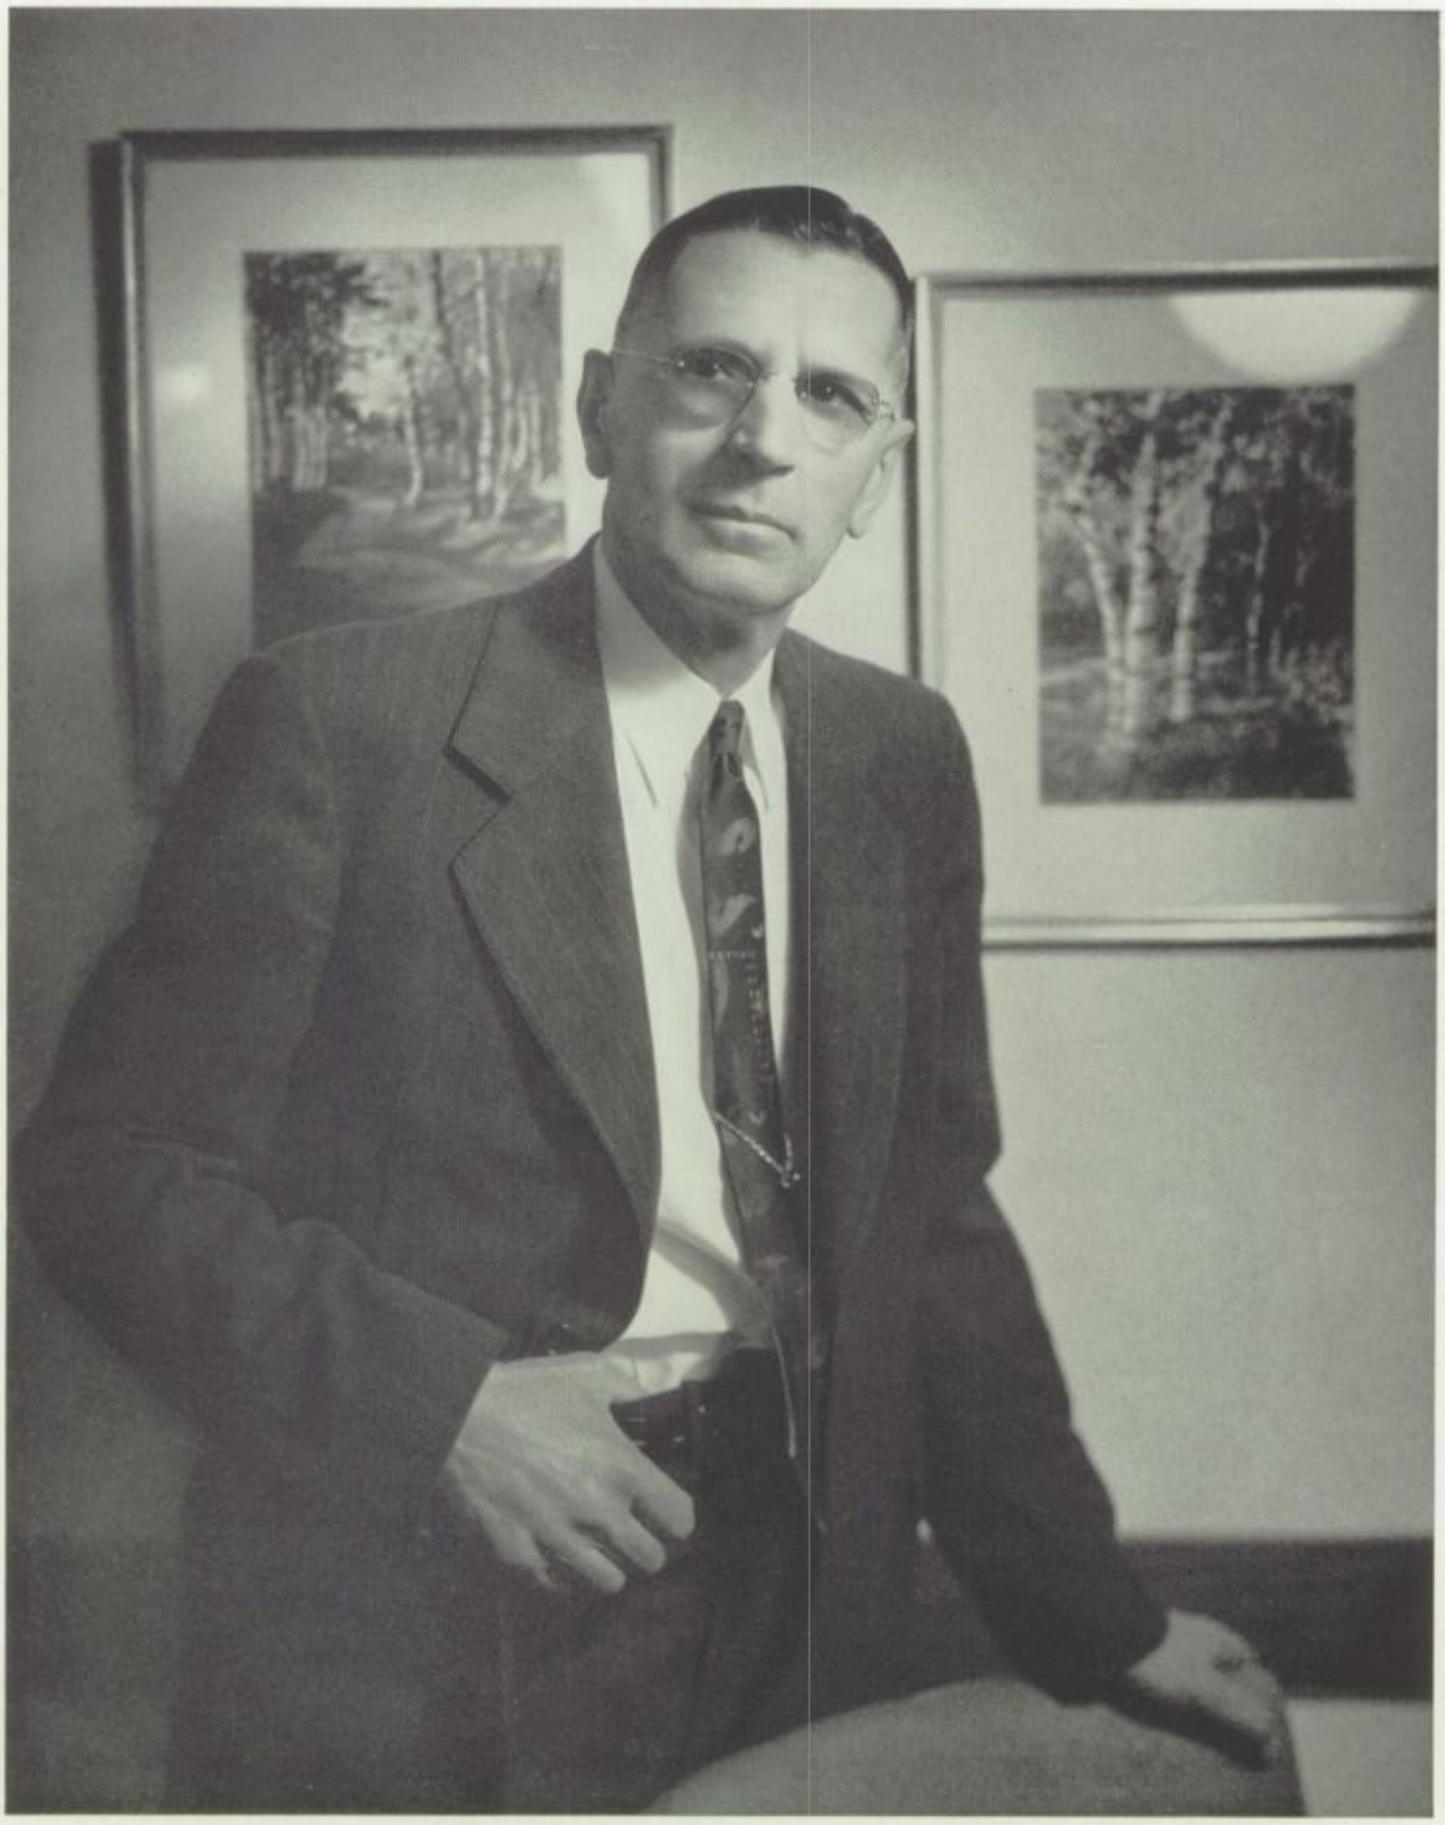
Neither fire nor disorder of remodeling was allowed to obstruct the usual run of classes during this school year or curtail the full program of activities and school events planned for Bay View. Fire destroyed the stage early in October, but the play went on; construction work continued after the opening of school in September, but classes and study groups shifted to new quarters and carried on their work without interruption.

With a little ingenuity and considerable effort, adminstration, teachers, engineers, and students overcame each difficulty as it came up. While desks and flooring and the finishing touches of paint were being added to West Study Hall, the cafeteria became headquarters for six homeroom groups and served as study hall for a number of periods during the day. When lockers seemed useless without keys and the completed numbering system, padlocks came into fashion to guard wraps and books. And when Bay View's own stage was not ready for the school play or the music festival, art crew, stage crew, performers, and directors traveled to Pulaski High School to paint scenery, place stage settings, and present first rate dramatic and musical productions.

Co-operation and extra effort on the part of faculty, students, and engineering staff turned seemingly difficult tasks to high accomplishment. The year 1958-'59 will count among the many great years in the history of Bay View High School.



DR. BERNHARD C. KORN, Principal

COUNSELORS Guide Students' Personal Development,

MR. DONDLINGER, Vice-Principal

"John Jones to see his counselor, please." That call, this year, proved more exciting than usual, for most often it meant a trip to one of the new counselors' offices on Floor 2, in space released for additional rooms when West Study Hall was moved to the third floor. There, in Room B, C, D, or E, in friendly conference, a student at times resolved a program conflict, planned for college or a seemingly remote career, or just received advice from his class counselor.

Such opportunities for help and counseling are features among the many benefits available to students from the guidance staff at Bay View. That staff, including counselors for grade groups, a dean of girls, a vocational counselor, and the counselor chairman, provides for careful and continuous guidance at all levels.

Even before a student leaves the elementary school, he has help in preparation for the eventful years of high school. His counselor visits the grade school and, in consultation with the student, parents, and the eighth grade teacher, plans the course of study the student will follow. When he reaches high school, the new freshman is received by his counselor and entrusted to a homeroom teacher who, too, will watch his progress and assist him with his problems.

MR. WILEY, Counselor Chairman

MISS STATZ, Dean of Girls

Scholastic Achievement, Preparation for the Future.

The first year of high school guidance includes a number of tests — reading tests, aptitude tests, IQ tests, and others — the results of which enable the counselors to plan a student's future scholastic program and prepare the foundation for his later occupation or career. For the junior and senior, special emphasis is placed on future employment and vocations, on preparation for college, and, when a student qualifies, on applications for scholarships.

This year the preparation for college became of greater concern in guidance for seniors, as larger numbers of students prepared to take the Merit Scholarship Examination and the College Entrance Board Examinations, to determine their fitness for college. There is now almost no school in the areas near Milwaukee, except the University of Wisconsin, that does not require all applicants to take the College Board Examination.

In vocational guidance various films appropriate for grade groups at different levels were shown in auditorium guidance programs and became the topic for discussion at Wednesday Life Advisement meetings in the homerooms. Among the films were "Finding Your Life Work," "Benefits of Looking Ahead," "Aptitudes and Occupations," "How to Keep a Job," and "Teacher of Tomorrow." In a special group meeting, a physician from the Bay View community spoke to students interested in medicine, nursing, X-ray and health specialties, and physical therapy.

Bay View's Student Government Association consists of the Assembly, the Student Board, and the Student Court. These three main bodies are responsible for working out the needs and interests of the entire school. They function largely through numerous committees which are developed whenever a special interest arises. The traditional standing committees include Central Study Hall, Building Control, Auto Registration, 9-B Instruction, Ring, and Dance. To these, during the present year, were added the new Pin and Stationery committees.

The Pin Committee introduced a plan by which S.G.A. members are privileged to retain their pins once having served, and the Stationery Committee inaugurated the use of distinctively styled school stationery to take care of such correspondence as invitations, thank you's, and friendly notes.

Inherent in STUDENT SELF GOVERNMENT . . ."

Key developments this year include the strengthening of the Auto Registration program by having the committee handle complaints not only in the school but also by meeting with the neighbors in the community. Added responsibility was given to Building Control because of the installation of an elevator.

In addition to the regular assembly and committee meetings, opportunities were provided members to participate in the city-wide student exchange program and the Red Feather campaign, to attend the State Student Council Convention at Shorewood and the Minnesota Workshop at St. Olaf's College.

Social activities were by no means neglected as is evidenced by Kickoff Kapers — the homecoming dance, at Christmas — Snowfall Serenade, Sweetheart Swing — the annual turnabout, and Apple Blossom Time — the junior-senior semi-formal which concluded the social calendar for the year.

ORACLE NEWSPAPER

To tell the complete Bay View Story to the entire student body is the job of the Oracle newspaper.

Through its bi-weekly cycle of reporting, writing, proofreading, layout, paste-up and headlining, the busy staff prepares a concise edition of all news, club activities, athletic events, popular chatter and other interesting happenings of the school for the enjoyment of all.

The editorial staff works hard with its assistants and reporters to produce the paper, and the business and advertising staffs co-ordinate their efforts to obtain the necessary subscriptions and advertisements to pay for its publication.

But when all the work is done and the results are viewed by all the students, the Viewites who contribute to the Oracle feel amply rewarded.

OFFICERS SEMESTER ONE

Thomas Wuethrich, S.G.A. Representative; Louis Seefeld, President; Jack Hart, Vice-President; Smith Brickhouse, Secretary; William Hahlbeck, Sergeant at Arms; Dennis Waldoch, Treasurer

The main purpose of Boys' Club is to provide the school with highly organized service crews. Two general meetings are held each semester. The following are sections in which the boys can participate: Athletic Publicity, Cheerleaders, Civil Defense (including Air-Raid Wardens, Disaster Crew, First Aid Crew, Rescue Crew, and Fire Wardens), and the Flag Crew.

Those boys interested in electronics, photography, aviation, conservation, or athletics can take part in special groups within the club. Boys who have won major emblems have the privilege of joining the Lettermen's Club.

Sectional meetings are called whenever needed, and officers are elected at a general meeting. Sports films are usually shown at the conclusion of the business meeting.

"Guten Tag!" "Bon Jour!" "Salus!" "Buenas Tardes!" Many friendly voices can be heard trying out new languages at the general meeting of the Foreign Language Club.

The purpose of the club is to enable the students of each language to learn and enjoy the culture, literature, and customs of that particular country. To provide for this, the club is divided into various sections so that the members may learn more about their selected language.

The entire club, however, gets together for the banquet in December. Nicolette McKenzie, of New Zealand, and Pedro Dornhiem, of Argentina, were the guest speakers at this event.

The club also presented two excellent paid programs. Mr. Dewey and Mr. Douglas brought faraway Africa and Russia to the Bay View Auditorium.

By promoting the understanding of the languages and cultures of other countries, the Foreign Language Club is making better citizens of the United States and of the world.

What a year this has been for Girls' Club! The program planned for October was presented the following May. A few hours after an October dress rehearsal, the stage was enveloped in smoke — and there ended the October plans. Thereafter programs were presented in the pit or on the apron of the stage, with a charred asbestos curtain as backdrop. In place of scenery, girls tried to substitute enthusiasm, but it wasn't always easy. Not until April, just in time for the annual spring fashion show, did Girls' Club again use the entire stage.

Besides the style show, the girls presented a radio play and a series of television varieties with dances, pantomimes, songs, and skits, and suggestions on manners and dress. The freshmen had their welcome party; the seniors, their farewell party. The Thanksgiving canned food drive again collected over a thousand cans — a true success.

Then, to show its appreciation for being allowed to use the auditorium and the stage for so many of its meetings, Girls' Club presented the school with a gift for the renovated stage.

Round Table, as its name implies, is composed of numerous sections designed to offer students a vast selection of activities. The club's features comprising the agenda are all in the field of Fine Arts.

As with the original Round Table of the Court of King Arthur, our Round Table is designed to get an over-all representation of the students. Such varied activities as music, debate, and dramatic arts offer an opportunity to all Viewites to become acquainted with the club according to their own interests.

The Foreign Correspondence section is perhaps the largest in membership. With two capable advisors, this section does its share in promoting world friendships.

The Chess section, by sending its teams to compete in city-wide competition, provides activity on the local scene.

Activities are brought within the realm of school life by the Make-up section in which students learn the techniques necessary to give our operettas and plays a more thorough air of authenticity.

A large membership, pertinent topics for discussion, and numerous services make Round Table an important factor in school life.

The eyes of the world are on science. Scientific dreams of just a few years ago are now realities. Atomic energy is being harnessed — man-made satellites are whirling through space — who can say what the future holds?

Science Club's main objective is to satisfy the scientific interests of its members through a program of extra-curricular activities, and thereby stimulate new and higher incentives within the minds of its youth to consider the field of science as a career.

Service is also rendered to the school through educational entertainment and information. During the first semester, a program entitled "Dial F for Future" was presented under the auspices of the Wisconsin Bell Telephone Company, in which recent operational wonders of the electronic age were demonstrated to an enthusiastic audience. During this semester, "Chemistry Progress" was presented, in which chemical wonders were presented to a crowded auditorium.

The Science Club of Bay View is organized into sections for closer individual contact. Under the direction of science instructors and their respective chairmen, the following areas have been made available to the students: Specimen preparation, home gardening, electro-plating, scientific vocations, gas measurement, etching glass, bacterial foods, field trips to medical institutions, and electronics projects.

The members of this club are responsible for decorating the school appropriately for each holiday, fixing the office bulletin boards, and designing and painting the scenery for the class play and operetta. This group is also in charge of designing programs for all school events.

This year several Art Club students entered the Scholastic Art Competition.

Scholarship . . . a Necessity for Leadership

X-Club members use their talents in a program of service to the school which forms a perfect complement to their high scholastic averages.

Much of the work is done in the field of furthering scholarship. The X-Club honor plaque serves to stimulate interest in good marks and rewards those who have achieved in this field.

Through the Speakers' Bureau and similar committees, members not only give service, but receive much in return. Members of these committees talk to freshmen and sophomore homerooms on subjects pertinent to school life, during the weekly Life Advisement periods.

X-Club members are also fond of recreation which is provided at regular club meetings and by various outside field trips. One of the club programs this year included a talk on snakes and reptiles in which the members had the once-in-a-lifetime experience of seeing a rattle snake shed its skin.

Future Teachers of America, more familiarly known as F.T.A., was organized three years ago for the purpose of better acquainting students who were interested in the field of teaching with their future profession. It was also begun with the prospective of bringing the supply and demand for teachers in the United States closer together.

Today, members of F.T.A. who are upper classmen with at least a B average have the privilege of teaching a subject in which they have a major or minor, when a teacher is absent from school. They also tutor students in need of assistance and help with makeup work. All the members attend the general meetings at which time discussions are held, movies shown, or pamphlets read.

In this manner members of F.T.A. are preparing themselves, so they might better serve their community and country in future years.

HISTORY CLUB Interests Roam the World

Bay View's United States History Club is not merely an extra-curricular activity whose main goal is providing entertainment for its members. The members of the United States History Club all join in constructive — and instructive — work to further these basic purposes: to know the events of the past better by studying and discussing them in the perspective of contemporary situations; to come to an understanding of the events of today by examining them in the light of yesterday; and, above all, to prepare its members to take an active, permanent, and mature interest in the events which will make history tomorrow. The United States History Club feels that the matter of the world should be of vital interest to all young adults. And under the able guidance of its faculty advisors, club members enjoy discussing issues of yesterday, today, and tomorrow with complete democratic freedom of opinion. The results, while sometimes controversial, never fail to be both stimulating and thought provoking.

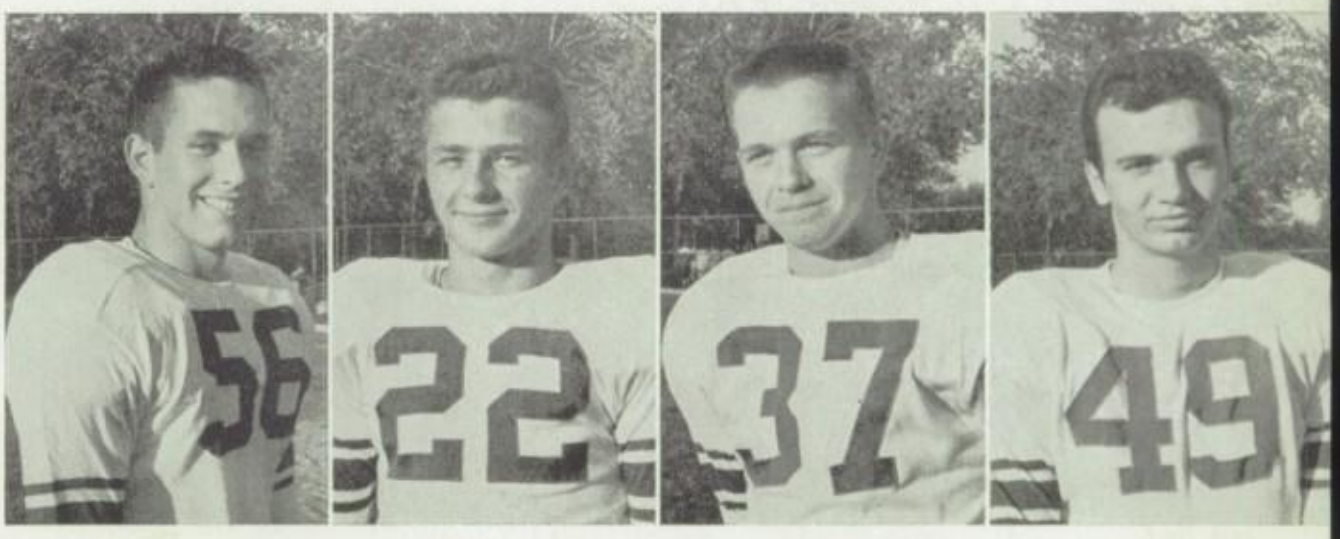
the Best Effort in Each Game



Charles Hayes | Richard Polgar | Edward Bartz | Dennis Waldoch

An encouraging turnout of nearly fifty boys met Coach Mierzwa for the season's first football practice on the day before school opened, Wednesday, September 3. The team was built around nine returning lettermen who carried the heaviest line in the city conference.

City-wide "Pigskin Preview," held at North Stadium on September 13, saw Bay View matched against West. Our Redcats proved by far the more aggressive team in an offensive show that heightened enthusiasm for the opening game against Lincoln. A plague of fumbles ripped the Bay offense, however, and our co-champs were humbled by a 19-12 defeat before Comet power. Three one-point losses at the hands of Juneau, Tech, and Pulaski, along with a tie against Custer, lowered our city standing while we remained near the top statistically. Following a disheartening homecoming defeat by Washington's Purple, Bay View stood second in the city conference for yardage gained and second for first downs. Passing efficiency had risen to 37 per cent while three pass interceptions and seven recoveries put the Bay squad among the top teams. Fewer penalties than any other conference team also spoke well for Bay View.

Defensively, however, the statistics offered a closer parallel to team standing. Over-all defensive records placed the Bays last, the result of 873 yards allowed on the ground and 175 in the air.

East and South faced the wrath of Redcat power at season's end and tumbled in order 21-13 and 12-0.

Final marking gave Bay View a 2½-5½ win-loss record. A scant 7 points posed the difference between second and tenth place. Thirty-one fumbles, along with numerous and decisive pass interceptions, plagued the Cats all season long, while a minority of four pass interceptions and only nine recovered fumbles bore out a weakness in the Bay game. An effective tightening of the defensive effort improved that picture towards season's end. Our Redcats finished fifth for over-all defensive play, with a first place passing defense.

The Redcat Harriers enjoyed another very successful season, winning four dual meets and losing one. They placed second in the Midwest Championship meet at Janesville, took third in the City meet, and fourth in the State Class A Championship.

A beautiful trophy was won by the team at the Midwest meet, and Captain Alan Schroeder won medals in the Midwest and City "B" individual championships. The B team won two and lost two, placing fourth in the Midwest and second in the City meets.

Captain Alan Schroeder was nominated for an athletic scholarship at the University of Wisconsin and during the season set new records for the Bay View 1.7 and 2.1 mile courses. Thomas Schroeder won the Frosh Marathon in 14.19; Robert Meehan won the Soph Marathon in 13.45.

REDCATS ATTEMPT TO BLOCK SHOT

A first game win over Whitewater (66-63) and a second in the Pulaski regional of the state tournament were the only bright notes of an otherwise disappointing season for the 1958-1959 Bay cagers. Finishing with a 3-15 record, including eleven consecutive losses in conference play and a last place standing, the team dropped three games by a single point and a fourth by two.

On the other hand, however, the season had several high spots, among which were the score given to Washington's city champions (61-49), the slaughter of Grafton's quintet (83-65), and the upset of Boys' Tech (61-58) in the state tournament.

Dick Raniewicz paced the Bay View offensive, averaging 20.6 points per conference game, and was selected to the second squad on both the Journal and Sentinel all-city teams.

Coach Nader will have excellent material for next year's squad with the experience gained by several of the non-graduating players, especially the outstanding sophomore center Jim Warras, guards Gary McTrusty and Bill Czajkowski, and forwards Jim Anderson and Dennis Bart.

September marked the beginning of G.A.A. activities for another year. The new advisors, Mrs. Dougherty and Miss Raksany, took hold of their new duties very well. With their help, the council was able to offer field hockey, modern dance, tumbling, apparatus, basketball, tennis, and bowling to G.A.A. members.

Shortly after the beginning of the semester, Nereids' try-outs were held, and as soon as new members were chosen, the club began to work on its annual swim show. Many hours were put into rehearsing numbers to various movie themes and award-winning songs, which made the title of "Aqua Oscars" very appropriate. After the evening performance refreshments were served buffet style to the guests.

The beginning of the second semester brought great enthusiasm for spring sports: volleyball, badminton, and softball.

For two months preceding May 15 swimmers were practicing speed, stunts, and diving for the inter-class swim meet. This was one of the biggest events of G.A.A., leading to the coveted "champions of the water."

May 25 was the big day set for the G.A.A. banquet. The purpose of the banquet was to honor those girls who had won awards during the year and to announce the recipients of the semester trophies.

Class Notes

The Commencement program of the January graduating class was unique in the history of Bay View. Members of the class, in cap and gown, were seated on the stage, along with speakers, homeroom teachers, and counselors. The stage was bare of furnishings except for rows of chairs for graduates and platform guests and the podium from which the parting message was given. There were no modern lights, no back drops, no velour draperies. All of these had been lost in the fire that destroyed the stage early in October.

But this partly restored stage was Bay View's own, the graduates' stage, and the members of the class had chosen to hold their closing ceremonies there, before an audience of parents and high school classmates, who had been included in the invitation to the exercises.

The extraordinary Commencement program was the final high moment in four eventful years for members of this class. They could, on that night, look back on the usual tricks played on them as freshmen, the Star Spangled Banner sung on Monday mornings, the frequent remonstrances of their homeroom teachers. They could recall the many school dances, basketball games, swimming meets, and wrestling matches, the exciting rallies, tense football games, and spectacular operettas.

Through the years memories of some of the seemingly unforgettable experiences may fade, but members of the Class of January, 1959, will never forget their graduation from the stage of S. G. A. inaugurations, the Solid Gold Cadillac, and The King and I.

Class Notes

In September, 1955, Bay View area grade school graduates entered their high school for the first time as Bay Viewites. They were awed by the length of the corridors, the depth of the auditorium, the height of the stairs; they were young and unfamiliar with high school life but eager to learn.

These newcomers soon managed to slip into the groove and find a spot for themselves in the busy life at Bay View. Girls attended the Girls' Club freshman party, discovered the various facets of G.A.A., and sought new interests in Round Table. Boys duly joined Boys' Club, Science Club, and Usher Corps. Together the members of this class applauded at plays and cheered at rallies, to add their voices to the echoes that greet all newcomers to the auditorium.

The first year went by and these students became sophomores. Then the future leaders of the class began to appear. They excelled more and more, not only in school work but in activities as well. Some became officers in clubs, and others gained recognition on the athletic scene. Activities began to occupy all of their spare time, and the day no longer seemed long enough.

New opportunities opened to these students as juniors. Television took on new meaning as United States History was taught via this medium, and TV became ETV, a source of education. For some, special English classes offered deeper understanding of the subject; for others, chemistry became a special challenge. For many, there were letters in sports, roles in plays and operettas, responsibilities in S.G.A. For all, there were guidance on Wednesday afternoons, the thrill of the City Co-championship, the triumph of The King and I.

In their last year these students, now seniors, found their building was changed, but not their feeling for it. For the first time, in rooms with movable desks, discussions could be held in a room-size circle or in smaller group arrangements for greater participation of more students. In the auditorium a reconstructed stage gave a lift to the spirits of everyone on nights when Oklahoma brought the unforgettable strains of "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "Surrey with the Fringe on Top," and "People Will Say We're in Love."

The new at Bay View would be the seniors' for only a short time, for the end of the year meant graduation, when they would pass over the renovated stage to receive their diplomas and to leave high school for a new and exciting life.

Carol
Remember those first days! Thanks for helping me out
I laugh when I think of it now!
Good Luck &
Best Wishes
always
Bev, Becky

Carol?
I enjoyed being in geography and trig with you and I hope to see you again. R. Brown

Carol
Good Luck at college.
I realize that you'll do a great job without "luck" but I thought I say it anyway.
Best wishes for a happy life.
Michael Egle

You've asked me to write
But what shall it be?
Just two little words,
"Remember Me"
Good Luck Always to one who deserves it.
Rene Puccetti '59

Carol!
Best wishes in anything you do. I'm sure you'll succeed in this course. I like it very much. I've enjoyed these quizzes you've given and I wish you the best of luck in the future. Please don't get into any trouble! Remember! (one date a night.)
Always Marilyn (clothes)

Dear Carol,
It has been such a wonderful year — and who could possibly say enough about Seminar. From reading your paper I know it has been a great deal for you.
I know that Laurence is lucky to have you, and I certainly hope Laurence suits your needs — Love,
Sue York

It seems like I've spent most of the year making you smile. Here's wishing you the best of luck in the future.
Mary M.

Well, I guess I'm the first.
All I can think of is Thank you - for your paper in Sem.
your talk, and your friendships.

Good Luck always,
Karen Anderson

Best Wish and good luck in the future. Have real lot of fun at college. Be good this summer.
Love Rae Lundquist

To a Norman beauty existentialist or angry young woman?) —
All kidding aside though, I really enjoyed your paper and hearing you in Jerusalem. Best first four years. Best of luck in the future.
I take it easy this summer. I don't keep at those guessing.

Salty Zen Jacobus
Brattleboro Vermont

P.S. — Have you ever been to the Purple Eye? I hear it's quite a place!
